Outreach '81

second quarter-JUNE

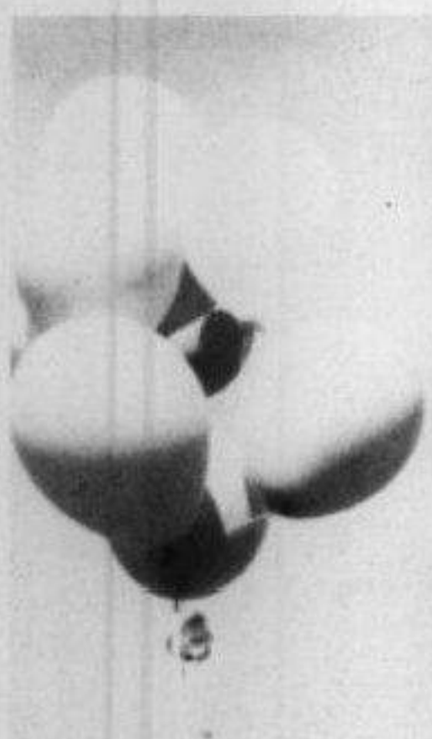
JEWISH CRUSADE FOR JESUS

As part of a weekend of national observation and demonstrations for animal rights, Rev. Michael Mountain, pictured here before the camera, director of The Jewish Crusade for Jesus, brought together a flock of animals and their human friends as a demonstration of public support for the humane treatment of animals.

A BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

The Jewish Crusade for Jesus is an outreach ministry of The Foundation Faith of GOD based in Phoenix, Arizona. As with all Foundation ministries, much of its work is devoted to care and concern for GOD's creatures. Its director, Rev. Michael Mountain, is host for a daily radio talk show, and organizes many other area programs.

The J.C.J.'s Animal Rights Day event in Scottsdale's Camino del Vista Park, was great fun highlighted by a 'Blessing of The Animals' and balloon release that carried hundreds of personalized messages about animals to parts unknown.



The Humane Society was represented as was the Phoenix branch of Cleveland Amory's Fund for Animals which organized the highly publicized Grand Canyon Burro Rescue. Other animal friends circulated petitions to ban the cruel sport of cock fighting in Arizona while others just shared their special love for The Lord's creatures.

The message of Animal Rights Day was this: GOD's creatures belong to GOD and man has no right to abuse them!

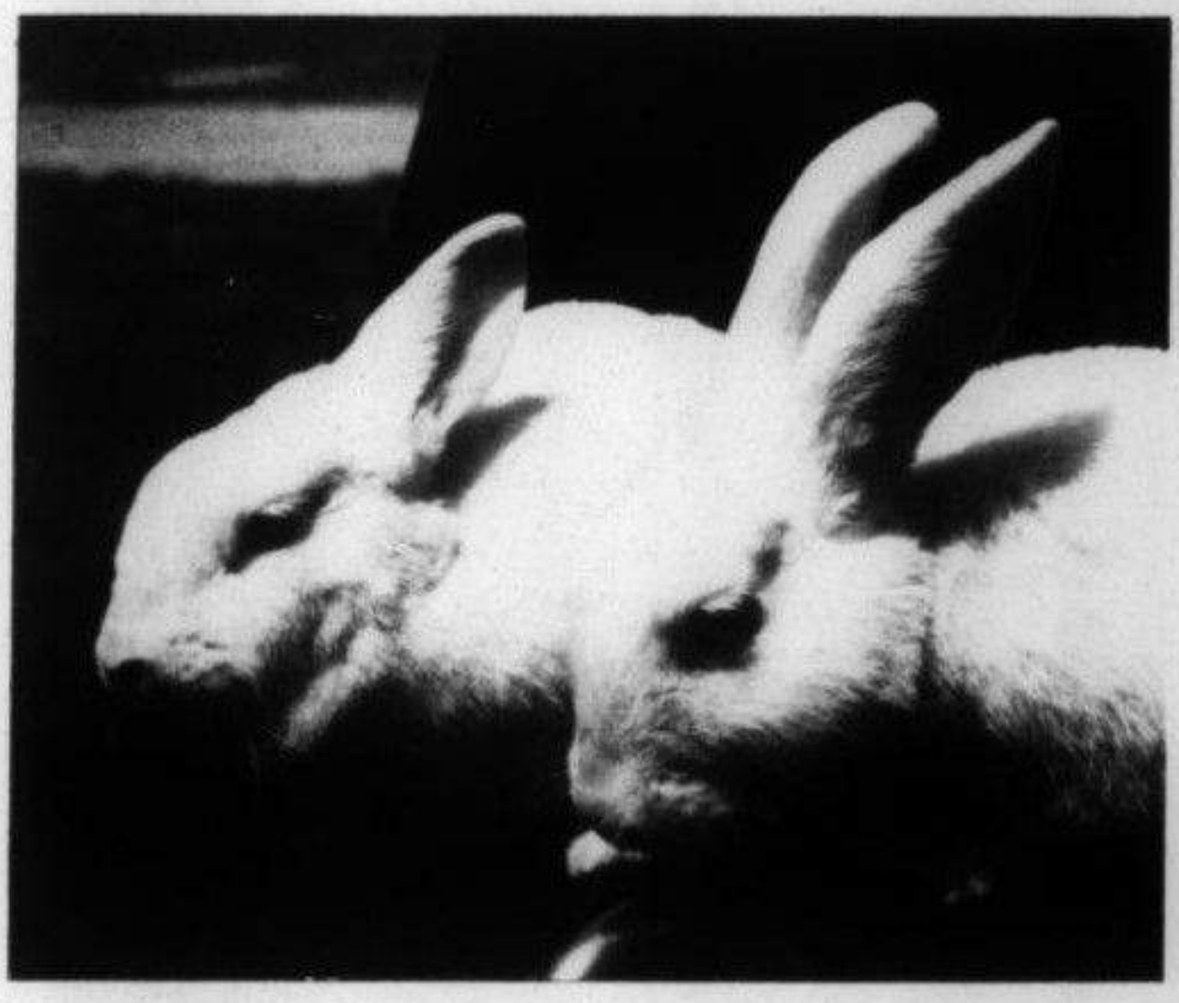
'Animals Count' announces the T-shirt of an 'Animal Rights Day' attender as she releases a squadron of balloons each armed with a message about animals.

One of the highlights of the day was The Blessing of The Animals. Here Rev. Mountain prepares to sprinkle some water and a prayer on the head of a happy Keeshond.

Rev. Michael Mountain started 'The Woofle-Poofle Club' as a way of fostering humane principles amongst children. It rapidly grew to embrace a full range of anti-vivisection and animal rights activities.

'Sun', Rev. Mountain's beautiful and very lovable Red Doberman. 'Sun' is the official 'Chairdog' of The Woofle-Poofle Club.

Rev. Michael Mountain taping a segment for his daily radio talk show on KXEG, Phoenix. The call-in show features well known guests, controversial topics and the continuing message of Christ's love for all of GOD's creatures.



'Prince Princess' and 'Howard Hughes' are Woofle-Poofle Club rabbits and residents of The Jewish Crusade for Jesus Headquarters in Phoenix. Rabbits, dogs, cats and people live side by side with not so much as a flurry of flying fur!

AROUND THE FOUNDATION

I am God, even thy God ...

For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

Psalm 50 8/10

DENVER

Rev. Cyrus Daniel and his team have acquired a second property to accommodate the growing work of The Denver Foundation, not to mention additional people and animals!

As well as adopting several more stray animals, Denver Founders have begun to work closely with The Humane Society in Denver helping to save The Lord's creatures from laboratory experiments.

THE NORTHEASTERN MINISTRIES

When you open your home and heart to The Lord's creatures, it doesn't take long before you consider an Animal Shelter as a serious proposal. Well, when the count of adopted strays and pets at The Northeastern Ministries headquarters passed thirty dogs, cats and birds of various descriptions, Revs. Faith Maloney, Magdalen St. Claire and Maia Astor-Drayton decided to start a much needed home for stray, unwanted and injured animals.

With GOD's help, the new shelter will be located in Buck's County, Pennsylvania, and will provide love and care for many more of GOD's Innocents.

ATLANTA

The prison ministry under the direction of Revs. John Christopher and Charity Benedicte has earned the respect and recognition of correction department officials on a city, state and federal level.

As a continuing commitment to this work for The Lord, they have begun a six month program of visiting and counseling on Death Row.

Their ministry brings the message and the love of Jesus Christ into a world of fear and despair behind prison bars.

DALLAS

As mentioned in the last issue of this Newsletter, Rev. Jason Smith is a gifted artist. His wildlife and nature murals are being commissioned by a growing number of Dallas/Ft. Worth hospitals. His work reflects a reverence for GOD's creation and a sensitivity to the sacredness of life. For more information, please contact The Dallas Foundation.

THE HEALING MINISTRY

Following an exciting and successful trip to Ontario, Canada, and a series of Healing events at The Canadian Foundation, Rev. Sharon St. Joan and Sister Gabrielle Lawrence will move the Headquarters of The Healing Ministry to the retreat center of The Northeastern Ministries, 'Faith Sanctuary', in Quakertown, Pennsylvania.

THE CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS

Rev. Steven Hirano is the spiritual guide of The Foundation in Toronto. His leadership has inspired work in a variety of ministerial fields. His weekly classes at The Canadian Headquarters on Davenport Road are open to all and have brought peace, understanding and enlightenment to many. To learn how you can benefit from his experience, call or write The Canadian Headquarters.

He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

Psalm 104 10/12

THE DIVINE GRACE MINISTRIES

Ministry Director Rev. Hope White has written and distributed two beautiful and inspiring booklets on man's relationship to animals. To receive your own copies, please write to Rev. Hope at the address given on the back of this Newsletter.

Rev. Simon Moor is supervising the extensive renovation of several Divine Grace buildings. Current plans call for opening a specialized Alcoholics Rehabilitation House to work in co-operation with area hospitals. The new program will give special attention to a small number of residents in a relaxed and caring environment.

I wonder why....

A very short story from a very young Founder:

"I wonder why the animals are staring at us?" said the man in the fur coat. A woman with lizard shoes said, "I wish they could tell us exactly what they wanted."

"Will you be helpful to us?" asked the girl in the deerskin jacket.

"Do you really want to know?" asked the deer.

"Oh, I know! I see!" said the boy and he handed his bunny-fur hat to the rabbit.

"Now you've got the idea!" said the lizard.

So certain kinds of things were given back to the animals. And then the animals sent the people home.
